

Silver Buckle Rodeo Queen Contest Information

- Contestant must be 16 – 19 years old as of January 1st of contest year. In order to advance to the Miss CCPRA contest, you must be 17 years old to compete.
- Contestants must have resided in Plumas County for at least 6 months prior to application deadline.
- Contestants must be un-married and have no dependants.
- Contestants must provide their own contest horse and transportation.
- Contestant must become a member of the Indian Valley Riding & Roping Club in order to enter contest and use arena.
- Contestants allowed to secure sponsors to offset the costs of competing. Maximum of 4 sponsors for a total sponsorship of $400. Sponsor payments are to be made directly to contestants.
- Contestants must use same horse for all phases of the contest including the practices, horsemanship contest, parade and grand entry. Exception only given with letter from certified veterinarian or by permission of contest coordinator.
- Contestants must assist with a fundraiser to offset prizes offered.
- Contestants must dress appropriately at all official functions where they represent the Indian Valley Riding & Roping Club.
- Contestants may elect to use a cowboy hat helmet if desired for added safety.
- The Silver Buckle Rodeo Queen will be expected to represent the Indian Valley Riding & Roping Club at the following events in full dress (Western Attire, Cowboy Hat with Crown, Chaps or Sash)
 - Plumas Sierra County Fair Parade
 - Taylorsville Junior Rodeo
 - Gold-digger's Day Parade
 - Scholarship Presenter Greenville High School Graduation
 - IVRRC Summer Event Series Final BBQ/Awards
 - IVRRC Christmas Party
 - Taylorsville 4th of July Parade & Rodeo
 - Rodeo Queen Contest

Rodeo Queen awarded a buckle. First Runner Up Princess awarded a necklace pendant.

Rodeo Queen Applications due at May club meeting. Please plan to attend and hand deliver.

Contestants must meet with Rodeo Queen Contest coordinator for rules and regulations of the queen contest.

Queen Contest Coordinator:

Suzie Greene 836-1187 or 249-0496